Extract from the Proceedings of the 216th Meeting of the Council of His Highness the Maharaja, held at Bangalore on the 3rd Nov. 1908.

VI. Subject. - (Clauses v and VIII of Schedule).

Amendment of the Superannuation and Pension Rules.

The Council agree in the suggestion of the Financial Secretary

1) that Article 332 of the Mysore Service Regulations, fixing the maximum period of qualifying service for a retiring pension for officers belonging to the Civil Service at 25 years, be expunged; and

2) that, in lieu of clause (c) of Article 340 (fixing the maximum limit of a pension of half average emoluments for the above class of officers at Rs.6.000/ per annum), a clause be inserted raising

Submitted to His Highness.

The question of suitably altering the Pension Rules, which are at present too liberal and involve unduly heavy expenditure, has been under consideration for some time past, and in my note dated 12th June 1908 submitting the budget estimates under certain miscellaneous heads for the current year, I said that the subject would be taken up as soon as the new Comptroller joined. The Comptroller having been consulted in the matter, he is of the opinion that the only changes required.are (1) to expunge Article 332 of the Mysore Service Regulations, fixing the maximum period of qualifying service for a retiring pension in the case of officers belonging to the Civil Service at 25 years and (2) that in the place of Article 340(c) fixing the maximum limit of a pension of half average emoluments for the above class of officers at Rs.6,000 per annum, a new cluase be inserted raising the limit of Rs.5,000 per annum to Rs.6,000 only in the case of the Chief Judge and Members of Council.

The matter has been considered in Council, and the Council is of opinion that the above suggestions of the Comptroller may be approved. But the alteration in the rules should not of course have retrospective effect so as to affect prejudicially any of the officers to whom the above articles now apply.

This may be sanctioned.

2) Forwarded to the Financial Secretary for perusal and for Minuting relevant to the papers relating to discussions subsequent to the order of 11-11-08. The draft, I presume, will be submitted to the Governor with the other papers.

Draft and a list of Officers to whom the Concession will be Continued are put up. The Concession is apparently intended to be shown only to Officers who hold on the date of alteration of the rule, appointments hitherto included

Sir,

Adverting to para 35 of the Report on the Progress of Revenue and Expenditure of Mysore from 1894-95 to 1903-04 stating that the Stationery and Printing department is a separate department in British India and that the four charges should be shewn under "14 General Administration" and not under "24 Miscellaneous" I am directed to state that the receipts and charges of the Stationery and Printing Department may be classified under a separate major head ~~Expenditure on the Stationery and Printing charges~~ that the four charges

2. I am further to invite your attention to para 54 of your Note wherein you observe that the increase in the expenditure on account of superannuation allowances and pensions during the decade (under review) would not have been so great as it has been but for the very liberal pension Rules obtaining in Mysore, and to request you to be so good as to furnish detail which the rules which you yourself refer to. Sir,

With reference to paragraph 2 of your letter No. Fl. 2640/Gl.Fin.280-04-13 dated the 26th October 1905, I have the honour to enclose a statement showing the important differences in the pension rules of the Mysore Government as compared with those in force in British India. Besides the variations under the code rules, there is a very great difference in the method of worki the rules. For instance, in British India a special pension is a very exceptional matter and is very rare in practice but in Mys the rules about condonation of breaks in services and of actual deficiencies in qualifying service are very freely availed of a special pensions can be obtained much more easily.

SUBJECT MATTER.

Referring to paragraph 2 of my letter No. Fl 2640 / Fl 280-14-13 dt 26/10/0 encloses a Statement showing the principal differences in the Pension rules of the Mysore Govt as compared with those in force in British Indi

Statement Showing the differences in the pension rules of the Mysore Government as compared with those in force in British India.

Subject.	Regulation for British India	Exceptions in Mysore	Year when change was introduced	Remarks.
Superior Service.	Superior Service is Service on pay exceeding Rs 10/- (Vide art 394 British India	Superior Service is Service on pay of Rs 10/- and more.	May 1901.	Rs 10/- being an important Scale of pay for a large number of men This difference makes for important additions to expenditure
Qualifying Service for Retiring pension.	A Retiring pension is granted to an officer of the Provincial Service who voluntarily retires after completing qualifying Superior Service for 30 years or such less time as may for any Special Class of officers be prescribed. (Vide art 465, British C.S.R.)	The maximum period of Service required for retiring pension in the case of the members of the so called Mysore Civil Service, Heads of Department and other officers. Such as Secretary and Deputy Secretary to Government. District and Sub-judges.	Omit 32 yrs.	This difference is apparently based on the analogy of the rules for the Indian Civil Service, but the analogy does not hold

		Assistant Commissioners (other than Extra Assistant Commissioners), Registrar Chief Court &c have been reduced to 25 years. (Art 312 A, Mysore Service Regulations).
Amount of Superior Pension.	The maximum limit of pension fixed in British India is Rs 5000 a year. But officers holding certain Special appointments are allowed by the Government of India an additional pension of Rs 1000 a year, provided they have rendered not less than three years of effective Service in such appointments, and provided also that in each case during such Service the officer has shown such Special energy and efficiency as may be considered deserving	In the case of all the officers mentioned in the preceding para the limit of a pension of half average emoluments has been raised to Rs 6000 per annum. (vide Art 320 C. Mysore Service Regulations).	The maximum pension admissible must have some relation to the general scale of pay and the cost of living, and judged by this standard, the Mysore rules are very liberal.

Subject	Regulation of British India	Exceptions in Mysore.	Year when change in law introduced.	Remarks.
	deserving of the concession. (vide arts: 442 and 475 of the British C.S.R).
Amount of Superior Pension.	The amount of Compensation and Invalid Gratuity payable in the case of Superior Service in British India is as under— After a Service of not less than 5 years but less than 10 years ..... 3 months' pay do 10 do do 15 ... 4 do do do 15 do do 20 .... 5 do do do 20 do do 30 ... 6 do do So that the Gratuity payable does in no case exceed 6 months' pay. (vide art 481 British C.S.R)	In Mysore the amount of Gratuity payable for a Service of not less than 5 years and up to 30 years is fixed at half months' pay for each year of Service, so that the Gratuity payable varies often times up to 15 months' pay. (vide art 324, Mysore Service Regulations).	Prior to 1891.	In increases in the scales of pension for superior servants have been sanctioned later on.
